OUR CALIFORNIA LETTER.

CHICO, BUTTE COUNTY.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

SAN FRANCISCO CAL., March 30, 1877.

Doubtless the readers of the WHIG AND COURIER have already been made acquainted with the portrait of the Chinese massacre at beautiful Rancho Chico, which historic pure and unfurnished escutcheon, I regret to become an anguished with a record of blood and murder. At the present time she is the target for all eyes, and a censorious world looks on with unusual judgment, in observance of the justice which shall be meted to the offenders, against her Law and order. Being at one time a resident within her late domain, having lived beneath her general skies, we are able to bear testimony where of we speak.

MONT OF THE REST OF THE CAPITAL CITY, and the various routes or lines of travel which it may please us to patronize, in the transit thereto and fro. Supposing that we take the Overland train, which is tedious, arriving at two o'clock in Sacramento, or more stylish and swifter passage via Vallejo which arrives at 12 o'clock M. we find that we have at our disposal the intervening hours, until three o'clock, at which time we take the California and Oregon railroad, for a journey northward, through the

UPPER SACRAMENTO VALLEY

We leave the pleasant city of the plains with something of regret, our last glance lingering upon memory, a vision of fair beauty, long avenues of trees, broad streets and tasteful dwellings, which seem glorified in the level rays of sunlight, this early summer afternoon. Before us lies the narrow roadway worn steely ribbons with the clanking foot-steps of our steed, of the grey nostrel, and smoky name. Along the force across the American River, fledged with willow and sycamore which in time are left behind, and before us lies the level upper Sacramento, a billowy verdant plain, treeless and monotonous. Upon the East the broad amphitheatre is hemmed in by the more snow capped Sierras, and Westward meeting into the sky line, the coast Range scarcely defining its picturesque boundaries.

BIGGS STATION IS REACHED,

a flourishing town, which only a little while ago, contained scarce a dozen houses clinging together as if in sympathy in the fearful and lonelinesse, upon this verdant monotonous land. On again, and Marysville, situated on the Feather River is gained, in the early twilight. Again on, and on, over the still level stretch of country, which now begins to assume the various forms of forest vegetation. We march over wide domains which the hooded grain is spangling, little past small sheepy [illegible] which blinks at us in the darkness, and with a last parting salute, draw up at the Chico station. Two mounted ladies from the "Bay City," tired with our long ride and feeling amply able to do justice to the appetizing dinner which awaits us at the Chico Hotel. Led kept warm, under cover, for us, by we sent an electric order, by that lightning fingered little messenger, the telegraph, to herald our approach. Free coaches to Chico Hotel. Union Hotel, Railroad Hotel, etc. These are the pleasant assurances which greet the stranger, but we patch our text in the hospitable embrace of the former, and are rendered all the comforts and elegancies any reasonable mortal can ask, and more than he expects to find so far from the centers of extreme wealth and commercial facilities.

We are an intense lover of perfect days, often wishing that Webster had coined a new choice words wherewith we might duly portray our exquisite sense of delight in a balmy moonlight evening, such a night as crept silver sandled from the East, competing with the fair earth whose radiant form was clad in emerald robes spangled with dewy diamonds. Then comes the perfect morrow with a thousand honeyed perfumes in the air, orchards blush in the fullness of promise, the lizard the vine are putting on ample cloaks of verdure. Southward and East, the lordly forest oaks crowd upon the borders of the town, while northward the lands forming a level plain, are at last broken into hills, which are but steps to the throne of Mt. Shasta. Westward, the valley's rim reaches to the coast Range, while its heart is cut in twain, by the shining Sacramento River, that begins its song among the woody forests of Oregon.

CHICO IS THE HOME OF GEN. BIDWELL, a pioneer whose large hearted and patriarchal interest in the place has endeared him to every dweller within her borders. His extensive lands are a model of cultivation, developing all the fruit varieties to be found growing in our semi tropical climate, and his palatial residence, in point of architecture surroundings adornment, will favorably compare with many of the princely homes of our moneyed aristocracy in this city. His flocks and herds are numerous, and the famous "Rancho Chico" is noted as the synonim of courteous hospitality, quiet, unostentatious elegance and almost princely revenues.

IN APPEARANCE, THE CITY OF CHICO, which is duly incorporated, reminds the stranger of Oakland, or better still, Sacramento; her broad, well shaded streets and roomy gardens delighting the eye with their wealth of fragrant flowers and climbing vines. The city has her courts of justice, Board of Town Trustees, City Officials, Court House, Jail and a Board of School Trustees, which within the last two years have erected a school house, with all modern conveniences, costing $25,000. The town is the centre of trade for a large portion of the valley, grain ranches, and its business capacity comprises extensive wholesale and retail advantages. It supports one daily and two weekly papers, and several physicians, members of our State Medical Boards, as well as lawyers of some celebrity, make this their abiding place.

Lighted by gas, at evening thirsty presents a cheerful and animated appearance. Of the banking institutions, the bank of Chico takes the lead. The religious element is well represented, the Presbyterian a handsome brick edifice ranking first in importance and pretention. Various manufactories are in progress, chief of which is the making of sash, doors and blinds, (the scream of the whistle and whirr of busy machines beginning and ending each day, unto the seventh, on which no man shall work the Sunday of the quiet peaceful country.

This, dear reader, is a picture of Chico—gem of the valley, emerald dropped in the hollow of the mighty mountain's hand. Fair Chico of my affection. We sometimes love a place—yearn to return—but spirits retrace the steps and experience of the past, and in midnight dreams we live again in the fullness of our joy, to find at the coming of day, the fair vision fled with only a heart sickness remaining.

Tired, months ago, of the cramped, dirty city, I wandered amid strange scenes, lonely and the crowd. Few cared for the new-comer who made a dwelling place among them. The green earth was glad with verdure, the meads were starred with flowers of every hue, the streams and water-courses were braided and festooned with the wild grape and blooming elder, the trailing blackberry, ash and sycamore, the orchards were in bloom, and sweet-smelling odors in the air. Out in the woods and fields I loitered, while the glad heart so delightly hymned God made the country—man made the town." The birds sang in the trees, butterflies sipped at the thistle blooms, the bees wandered pollen laden from flower to flower, and the sunshine in variegated mosaic, sifted through the spreading branches, where in coziness abide nature I dreamed away the rosy hours, forgetful of the world and its troubles.

NEW MAGAZINES.

POPULAR AMERICAN MONTHLY is unusually attractive for its April number. Among the subjects are Architectural Progress as seen in the Religious Edifices of the World, by Rev. Dr. Blackwood, The American Drama, by A. E. Lancaster, Colored Dancing, its History, growth and development, Squatts and Squatting, by Capt. R. B. Lee, U. S. N., During Forty Years, A Chat about the Doctors, and Some Savage Virtues, Notes and Queries, Literature and Art, Science and Mechanics, Current Memoranda and Gossip. The magazine is profusely illustrated.

ATLANTIC MAGAZINE. The Atlantic for April presents an admirably engraved portrait of William Black, the popular novelist, and in the letter-press the editor gives a full but appreciative sketch of his life. The literary contents of the number are as follows: Geographical and Scientific Results of the English Arctic Expedition, A Sea Work on Rasun, being a review and Synopsis of Mr. Wallace's new Malay book, a fascinating Biographical sketch of Edmund Kean, Great Storms, Heroic Music and Musicians, with special reference to Mendelssohn, a scientific exposition of Mesmerism, Odyssia Tribe-Fortune, Still Waters, by Dr. W. B. Carpenter, The Poet in the City, Inside the House of Commons, Harmony, Other Worlds and Other Universes, by Richard A. Proctor, B. A. F. R. S., Wits and Witticisms, and The Jews in Europe. In addition to all this, there are three chapters of Mrs. Oliphant's interesting story of Young Musgrave, and copious editorial notes on home and foreign literature, science, and art. Published by E. R. Pelton, 27 Bond street, New York.

STATE NEWS.

Cumberland.

The Press says that Mrs. Alonzo A. Dyer of Portland, was very severely injured, Friday, by being struck by a team.

The Press says that Mr. Oxley of Portland has very little prospect of getting a $70,000 fortune from England as reported.

A swindler is said to be visiting families in Deering and Portland, with a plan for grafting plants so that they will produce various colored flowers. He hands in collected one $300, charging $2.50 for each operation. The whole thing is a fraud.

Knox.

The Gazette says that on March 28th, quite an extensive land-slide took place in the pasture of Alvin G. Beverage, at North Haven. The extent of this land-slide on the shore line is about 90 feet, and extends back from the shore into a hard, gravely bank more than 100 feet.

Lincoln.

The Press says that Miss Lizzie Chaney has been arrested for setting fire to the house of Alfred Call at Damariscotta.

Oxford.

The Advertiser says that the tannery at Norway is to be enlarged.

Mr. Henry Howe of Norway village, committed suicide about nine o'clock Friday morning, by cutting his throat with a razor. He lived but a few moments after committing the awful act. Mr. Howe was about 70 years old, and one of the best and most esteemed citizens.

Somerset.

The Newport News says that Chas. L. Haines of Pittsfield, is selling notes given by John L. Woodbury of that town in a patent mop and churn transaction, which Mr. W. warns parties against purchasing, as he holds an agreement making them payable in "profits," etc.

Washington.

The Intelligencer says it is proposed to introduce water works into Calais. The Advertiser doesn't think it an economical measure at present, but says, "If any investments are to be made it apparently should be for something that will increase our population and draw in outside capital."

State at Large.

Patents have been issued to Maine citizens as follows: S. B. Dinsmore, Richmond, flat-iron heater; E. H. & C. W. Richardson, Portland, rein-holder; A. F. Gerald, Augusta, hinges for boxes, etc.; G. L. Rich, Rockland, combined chair and work-table.

God purifies the soul very much as we air our rooms. He throws open all the windows—the windows of feeling, of intellect, of imagination, of purpose—and sends a strong current of vitalizing grace sweeping through them, until every element of our nature is reorganized and made healthy and bracing.

"I went to see my girl the other day," says our Dan to a friend. "I kissed her repeatedly, and when I finally ceased, the tears came into her eyes, and she said in sad tones, 'Ah, Dan, I fear you have ceased to love me.' 'Oh, no!' I replied, 'but I must breathe!'"

Combat all thy discontent through prayer, every care through faith, every fear through hope.

A judicious silence is always better than truth spoken without charity.

In the economy of Nature nothing is lost. The inside of an orange may refresh one man, while the outside of the same fruit may serve to break another man's leg.

Dew drops at night are diamonds in morn, so the tears we weep here may be pearls in Heaven.

Hope is the best part of our riches. What profiteth the wealth of the fadless in our pockets, if we have not the hope of Heaven in our souls?

The mind has a certain vegetative power, which cannot be wholly idle. If it is not laid out and cultivated into a beautiful garden, it will of itself shoot up weeds or flowers of a wild growth.

A Chicago man at the point of death was asked, if a clergyman should be sent for. "No," said he, "send for a brandy peach."

Two oysters in a gallon of Lakeman rye, at a church fair, are no longer called stews, but aquatics, some people think there are too many fish in the water.

People make a great mistake in not Heaven. They think it begins up yonder. But it really begins down here. If you can be happy in the basement story, you are fitted to enjoy the happiness of the upper stories. But if you whine and moan here, Heaven itself cannot change your mood.

A finely-dressed lady, and very intellectual looking, slipped on a piece of orange peel on Fifth Avenue yesterday, and sat down awfully hard. "My!" she said, "the velocity of that descent matters as much as the weight." "I beg your pardon," said the gentleman who assisted her up, "you are a Boston lady I fancy." And she was.

"Servant! I suppose mutton chops shall have to wait on the table?" Lady—Oh, no. I want a housemaid. Servant—I suppose, ma'am, I shan't not have to make the beds? Lady (surprised, but compliantly)—Certainly not. Servant (thinking the place will suit)—And I suppose, ma'am, I shall not be expected to answer the doors? Lady—Of course not. The fact is, I want a servant to look after the children, you will suit.

SAGENESS OF SILENCE.—There are times when silence is the duty, when the best speechless eloquence. There seems to be moaning but at its best, sad bodies. We are not unhappy in such moments. We have fallen into a delicious mood without our own volition. There is a spell upon us. This is the absolute Quietude which the Eudora philosopher of old held to be the natural condition of man. To be exempt from this was to be the victim of a succession of storms and tempests. The south sea islanders and the Hindoo sage engage in the same conclusion. The former which dwell in our boats before his fast and never move a muscle. He looks out into space apparently unagitated by the forces of Nature. He happily expresses the happy frame of mind. The Hindoo is mentioned by Emerson as one in the spells described—for not one effects us. Hitherto—we should be respected. A husband is so controlled and the wife thinks he is an ass, the wife is so controlled and the husband thinks she is foolish. There is trouble. If they understood each other there would be no trouble. When one wishes to be alone a hint is sufficient, an intimation, wish should be sacredly respected. This is the sermon from Nature's book that should rustle in every heart.

The latest reports from Washington indicate the Democratic will withdraw the United States troops from the disputed Hayes at Columbia and thus open the way to establish their rights in those states through the judicial tribunals. It is not without the best reason that this result is accepted with joy by the vast majority of the white race throughout the country, equally confident that it will be in accordance with the wishes of a large majority of the legal voters thereon, regardless of the color line. By fraud, bulldozing and intimidation of a large number of desperadoes from Georgia into the counties of Eastern Carolina, the State and Congressional ticket of the Republicans in the state, the real votes of South Carolina [illegible] Hampton and Wade Hampton appear to have been rendered ineffectual and inoperative by the ballot box stuffing and ballot box robbery of the Republicans. DOMESTIC NEWS.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION.

The Nicholls' Fuglers Heard.

THEY WANT NO COMPROMISE.

NICHOLLS ANYWAY—JUSTICE NOHOW.

And what's the Commission to Do?

Governor Chamberlain.

NEW YORK, April 9. Columbia special reiterates that Chamberlain will force Hampton to make movements to regain the Senate House through the courts, and that this cause delay lasting for months. It is stated that when in New York last week Chamberlain was furnished with ample encouragement to hold his position as Governor, by Republicans who believe he is the right. This caused him to return to Columbia instead of remaining in N. York and taking up his law business as believed was his intention.

The President's Commission—A Nicholls' Squad Before It.

NEW YORK, April 9. The Commission was in session three hours in the morning well closed doors, the first opportunity it has taken for a full consultation.

At one o'clock it received a delegation of about 25 gentlemen with Mr. Black, President of the Cotton Exchange, at their head representing bankers, merchants and other business men of the city

The Commissioners Talk to It

The Commission said they had sought confusion, but they could not help it. They found two Governments, two Supreme Courts and an alleged dual government in all the departments, but in fact by the acknowledgment of all parties there is only one legislature, though it meets in two halls. The moment the Legislature meets in one body it will be the State of Louisiana, and while it is in session it is the only power in the State that can secure the intervention of the army. If self-government is desired and the withdrawal of the army, it can probably be secured in a day, should the public opinion of the State compel its Legislature to meet as one body

There are 25 of the 36 Senators, and 101 of the 123 Representatives whose election is not disputed by either party, and the Commission urged that when they assemble it was such the Commission could have nothing whatever to say about its action.

The Squad Want Nothing but the Support of Nicholls

The discussion was continued for three hours. The delegation was not inclined to accept the suggestion, maintaining that Nicholls must be defended to the fullest extent

The Union Club Heard.

A delegation from the Union Club, a Republican Association, was received and heard and a committee from the Packard Legislature presented statistics, records and a brief. The Commission were in session nearly five hours and the members met the evening in individual conversation.

Other Callers

On Tuesday the officers of the city government will call and also a delegation of leading colored men including professions men, planters and citizens of wealth and business standing.

Nicholls' "Judges" Having no Legal Authority of Course are Silent.

Referring to the interview between the Commission and the Judges of the Nicholls Supreme Court, the Times says it learns from the very best authority that the visit of those Judges was made at the request and invitation of the Commission and that the Judges did not, nor would they discuss or argue before the Commission the question of the status or legality of their Court. Various questions were propounded and in answer thereto the Commission learned that the Supreme Court had since January 9th, passed upon cases and that their mandates and orders had been implicitly observed in every instance.

NEW YORK CITY

Effect of European War Reports

NEW YORK, April 9 The European warlike reports have stiffened breadstuffs and the produce markets here. Flour has advanced 5 to 10 cents, corn 1 to 2 cents per bushel, pork 10 cents per barrel, and lard ½ c fraction higher.

The Gold Market.

Wall street 1.46 P M.—Gold advanced to 16c., the moving cause being the alleged issue by the Secretary of the Treasury of a circular making the greenbacks received by the Treasury in exchange for silver coin and now represented to the amount of ten millions a special fund, and of course withdrawn from circulation. This is construed and interpreted on the street as in the interest of the bear party in stocks.

The Jewett Tragedy

A Coroner has been investigating the Jewett tragedy all day. He is very reticent with regard to the result. He says, however, he discovered that Mr. Talbot was so deeply interested in the business as to give him an interest in the business, that Orville D. Jewett retired from the firm and that the latter had found it out on the day of the tragedy. The former also states he was in possession of testimony showing that Orville D. Jewett, had revolvers and a knife on his person, and that he purchased the knife on the morning of the tragedy. The Coroner inclines to the opinion that Orville took his own life, but the public think the facts but reinforce their belief that he was murdered.

THE WEATHER.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

Hon. Wm. C. Rhodes, founder and many years editor of the Elmira, N. Y., Gazette, died at Sannomora, Sunday, aged 57.

It is said that Secretary Sherman is meeting with difficulty in prosecuting whiskey thieves. It appears that the Department was pledged by Bristow to a good many that they would not be published if they would testify to convict the few. These parties now declare this promise cannot be broken, and that they must not be put on trial.

Cornelius Scanlon, of New York, with hands and feet tied, was thrown by drunken party from a second story window at midnight Sunday and had his skull fractured. About a dozen persons of both sexes have been arrested.

The Treasurer of the United States announces that he will hereafter exchange silver coin for National Bank notes, in sums of $1,000, or any multiple thereof not to exceed $10,000.

The U. S. Supreme Court has reversed the decision of the Lower Court in the Centennial appropriation case, and decides that the $150,000 appropriated by Congress shall be returned to the Government before any dividends are paid to stockholders.

Oakey Hall refused an interview Sunday with the London correspondent of the Tribune.

A Philadelphia despatch says no suspicions of a mutiny and murder on the brig Roanoke are entertained there as published in Boston, and the underwriters will pay the insurance on the vessel and cargo. Magelre, the only survivor, and Capt Carson, who rescued him, are in Philadelphia.

The Secretary of Navy orders all officers to make their own personal applications for assignments to positions and to refrain from having such applications made by Congressmen or politicians.

The body of James Howie was found in East River, N. Y. Sunday, with $6,000 in Government bonds in his pocket. He probably fell overboard.

John P. Handy, jailor at Machias, died suddenly Monday forenoon. He was well and about the house up to the moment of his death.

Mrs. Eben Averill and grand-daughter, Miss Dunton of Alna, were thrown from a carriage near Sheepscot Bridge, Sunday evening. Miss Dunton had a leg broken.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE SITUATION IN EUROPE

DR SCHENCK'S STANDARD REMEDIES.

The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, and SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, and, if taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure is effected.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.

The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To enable the Pulmonic Syrup to do this, Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative; the alkali of which it is composed, mixes with the food and prevents souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and the Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood: then the lungs heal, and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh cold.

All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his principal office, corner of SIXTH and ARCH STS., Philadelphia, every Monday.

Schenck's Medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country.

TRUE ECONOMY is not in buying the lowest price articles. The best is cheapest. So with the fine cultivated and plantation grown spices imported by Messrs. Plackney, Jackson & Co., of London and New York. I have just received a shipment of these goods and would specially invite the attention of all consumers to them. These spices are not only absolutely pure, but, are without a doubt, the finest ever imported into this country. I confidently recommend them as being really of unusual merit.

Meeting of the Penobscot Agricultural Society at the Globe Hotel, this morning, at ten o'clock.

L. W. Kittridge & Co., will have a spring opening of millinery, Thursday, April 12. See advertisement.

On the first page this morning will be found, "Our California Letter;" also the notices of the New Magazines.

Social dance at Music Hall this evening. Miscellaneous dancing from eight until half-past ten; German until 12 o'clock.

The ship Martha Cobb will arrive in port to-day and will be loaded with deals for Liverpool by Messrs. Cutler and Eddy.

Annual meeting of the corporation for the Home for Aged Women, at the City Hall, this afternoon at half-past two o'clock

The last sociable of the season by the members of the Third Parish Church will be held in the vestry of that Church this evening.

Mrs. Hannah Morgan of Halifax will address the union prayer meeting at Columbia street Baptist church this morning at 9 o'clock.

The Women's Auxiliary Board of Missions will hold their annual meeting in the vestry of the First Parish church, next Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

The stockholders of the Great Work Milling and Manufacturing Company will hold their annual meeting at the office of Cutler & Eddy this morning at ten o'clock.

It is rumored that the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company are going to extend their line to this city, and will open an office here sometime during the present season.

J. D. Warren, Esq., has been appointed Agent and Attorney for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and all proceedings at Court in their behalf will be conducted by him or under his direction.

Sunday, a special passenger train was run by the Maine Central Railroad Company to accommodate all those persons in Fairfield and intermediate stations who wished to attend the Grange temperance meeting at Norridgewock.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold a prayer meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the vestry of Union street Methodist church, to which they cordially invite all who are interested in the subject of temperance.

Mrs Hunt-Morgan, of England, who has spent much of her time in evangelistic work among soldiers and sailors, is about to visit Bangor, and to deliver lectures here in course of which interesting narratives of her work will be given.

BARGAINS IN DRESS GOODS. In another column G. W. Stevens announces a line of silks and other dress goods at greatly reduced prices, and he is bound that people shall have no valid excuse for going out of the city to secure bargains. Read his advertisement and give him a call.

FINE EXHIBITION OF PHOTOGRAPHS. Mr. Kingsville Marr has arrived in this city with a very large collection of photographs from the house of Williams and Everette of Boston, and will give a free exhibition of the same in the Art Association Rooms, commencing Wednesday next and continuing for about ten days.

UNIVERSALIST SOCIABLE. The last in the course of the sociables given under the auspices of the Universalist Society, at Music Hall, last evening, was one of the pleasantest of the series. Ample refreshments were served during intermission, the music was excellent, and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

GUILFORD WOOLEN MILL. The proprietors of the Guilford Woolen Mill at their annual meeting in Guilford Saturday, April 7th, 1877, elected the following officers for the year ensuing D. R. Straw, Moderator; Joseph Crosby, Dexter, Clerk; Samuel Webber, Guilford, Treasurer; Wm. P. Appleyard, Geo. W. Pratt, and Josiah B. Mayo, Committee

SIX EVENINGS WITH THE SCIENTIFIC. Rev. Mr. Knapp will begin this evening his course of readings and illustrations of the great masterpieces of sculpture. His collection of stereopticon pictures is very complete, embracing examples of all the schools and the gems of the old world galleries. This evening will be devoted to Egyptian Sculpture and to the great age of Greece, including the Parthenon Marbles, Venus of Milo, Faun of Praxiteles and many others.

NEW FIRM. By referring to our advertising columns it will be noticed that the well known firm of Rice & Leathers has been dissolved—Mr. W. H. Leathers retiring, and Mr. A. H. C. Rice and Mr. C. E. Baker, under the firm name of Rice & Baker, continuing the business at Nos. 133 and 135 Exchange street. They will keep constantly in stock the best the market affords of meats, lard, oysters, vegetables, &c. They had on exhibition yesterday the meat of an ox, raised by Mr Holbrook of Holden, that dressed 1,860 pounds.

THE BREWER BRIDGE has long been a loafing place for idlers, who at times monopolized the side-walks and indulged in conversation disgusting to all who had to make their way through such a crowd, but now it will be anything but a favorite place for them for Constable Moor will attend to them hereafter. Yesterday he arrested Thomas McGraw, John McFarland, Patrick Moriarty, Fred Johnson, and Mary Reagan, whom he brought before Trial Justice Gilmore of Brewer, and they were fined one dollar and costs each for "collecting in and obstructing travel on the Bangor & Brewer toll bridge."

RELIGIOUS MEETING. A very interesting religious service was held at the "Home for Aged Women" on Sunday last, at 4 o'clock, Rev. Wm. Brown of the Union street church officiating. The sermon from the text, "I shall be satisfied when I awake with thy likeness," was listened to with marked attention and interest by the company present, which comprised the inmates, many of the managers, friends and neighbors. These meetings are to be held each Sabbath, conducted by clergymen from the different churches and will doubtless prove a great source of pleasure to those, who by reason of age and infirmity are prevented from going to public places of worship, and also to the friends who may meet with them. It is hoped that some one whom God has bestowed the gift of song, will feel inclined to come in and contribute their part to the pleasure of these meetings.

A SUBSTANTIAL RETRENCHMENT. We are informed that the order introduced by Alderman Woodbury at the last meeting of the City Council, fixing the contract price for lighting the streets for the present municipal year, will effect a saving to the city of nearly $1,300 on the prices formerly paid the Bangor Gas Light Co. alone. In this connection we note an article in the N. Y. Tribune stating that all the bids first made by the gas companies of that city this year were rejected, and on the second bidding the prices were brought down from $30.00 to $16.00 per lamp per annum, saving a round hundred thousand dollars per annum.

S. P. C. A. At an adjourned meeting of the Board of Directors of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals held yesterday afternoon at the office of General J. L. Hodsdon, the following business was transacted:

Voted, That the President and Secretary be a committee to raise necessary funds for the Society's purposes, in such a manner as they may see fit, and that they constitute a committee to call a public meeting in behalf of the Society's interest at a time and place to be by them appointed.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at the same place Monday, April 23d, at 3 o'clock P. M., to hear the committee report.

TEACHERS' APPOINTED. The School Committee, at an adjourned meeting Monday evening, completed the election of teachers for the suburban schools, so that the list stands as follows: Clara L. Gilman, Odlin District; Hattie E. Glass, Tyler District; Fannie M. Fuller, Fuller District; Annie L. Chase, North Bangor District; Flora J. Newcomb, Fuller District; Abbie G. Fobes, Mt. Hope District; Nancy A. Gilman, Bagley District; Edith M. Palmer, Sherburne District, Annie Martin, Hillside District, Mary R. Shaw, Six Mile Falls, Abbie S. Stevens, Stillwater Avenue, Herman W. Griffin, Central District; Nellie R Huntington, Avenue District, vice Sarah L. Morrison, who declined to serve. These schools will commence on Monday, the 16th inst.

THE MAINE MILITIA. The Portland Press says. A plan of organization is proposed which provides for the three battalions of infantry—east, west and centre, with a platoon or battery of artillery attached to each battalion, the artillery to constitute of itself a battalion commanded by a Major. General Chamberlain and other officers of high rank are desirous that the militia law of this State should be made to conform to the United States rules. Last year the encampment of our volunteer militia took place at Brunswick. During the present year it is not unlikely that it will take place in Augusta on the State grounds and adjoining territory, which will afford ample field for tactics and maneuvres. At the coming encampment it is proposed to have the troops pay more attention to target practice than has been the case heretofore.

THE HANDEL CONCERT The last concert of the season by the Handel Association, was given in City Hall last evening before a fine audience, under the direction of Mr Davenport. The various parts have been under constant rehearsal for a long time and were all very finely executed. The entertainment opened with the chorus "As the hart pants" This was followed by the air, "For My Soul Thirsteth," by Miss Helen O-good, which was very sweetly sung The recitation "My Tears Have Been My Meat," by Mrs. W. F Shaw came next and was given in her usual fine taste. The chorus, "Why My Soul, Art Thou so Vexed," was then finely rendered. The recitation "My God, within me is my soul cast down," by Miss Belle Bartlette, was the next piece, and was sweetly executed The Quintette, "The Lord Hath Commanded," by Miss Bartlette and the Penobscot Quartette, was rendered magnificently and called forth loud applause from the audience Part first the recital with the chorus, "Why My Soul art Thou so Vexed." Part second opened with an instrumental trio "Serenade." Schubert, for the violin, piano, and organ, executed by Mr. McQuown, Miss Rowe and Miss Garland. This was one of the finest selections of the evening and was very enthusiastically received by the audience. The song "Adelaide," by Mr. J. W. Patton, was one of that gentleman's best efforts. The Cornet Solo, "Amusement Polka," by Mr. A. D. Harlow, was loudly encored and the gentleman responded by playing "Mone Ever." Mattie. The trio "Cuckoo's Call," by Mrs. W. F. Shaw, Mrs. N. E. Bragg and Mrs. W. H Gardner, was beautifully sung. The trio, "Thee Only Have I Loved," by Miss Bartlette, Mr E. E. Holden, and Mr. G. T. Moody was well given. The song "Three Students," by Mr. J. H. Haynes, was rendered in that gentleman's usual pleasing manner. The entertainment then closed with the Quintette, "Beware," by Mrs. W. F. Shaw and the Penobscot Quartette. The various accompaniments were played by Mrs. Davenport, Mrs. Jewell and Miss Kate Stewart.

UNION PRAYER MEETING The following address has been sent to the churches of New England by the ministers of Boston and vicinity:

To the Churches of Christ Throughout New England:

Beloved in God, we are filled with wonder and joy and gratitude, in view of the awakening among all classes of men in Boston. None of the meetings in Great Britain nor in this country have been crowned with such remarkable success.—God's great and wonderful works in Boston have awakened the desire that all the churches of Christ in New England should receive similar blessings. We believe that concerted prayer and effort on the part of all the churches would be honored of God by a general and thorough revival throughout our borders. Desiring that all our churches of our Lord Jesus Christ may be brought into closer fellowship in the work and in the blessings of the Gospel, we would make the following suggestions:

First—That every church in New England in sympathy with the Tabernacle meeting should (either alone or in association with others in the same city or town) begin meetings for prayer and evangelistic services to continue every night, or as often as may be thought best, for at least two weeks, commencing with a special service on Sunday, 8th of April.

Second—That such churches as are in sympathy, and will unite in this alliance for prayer and evangelistic work, do at once send their names and locations, with pastors' address, to the Rev. H. M. Parsons, Secretary, No. 10 Highland avenue, Boston Highlands.

Third—That prayer to God be made continually, not only for the work in your own immediate vicinity, but for all the churches uniting in this alliance and for Boston.

Fourth—That Thursday, the 12th inst., be observed by all the churches separately, as a day of fasting and prayer; that on that day services be held in the morning for humiliation and confession of sin; in the afternoon for special prayer; in the evening for the preaching of the Gospel.

Fifth—That reports of blessings received in answer to prayer shall be sent as may be to the Rev. Mr. Parsons.

On behalf of the ministers of Boston and vicinity who are associated in the Tabernacle meeting,

D. L. MOODY.

Boston, April 5, 1877.

In accordance with the above a Union prayer meeting will be held in Columbia Street Church Thursday morning at nine o'clock, and in the afternoon in the Chapel of the First Baptist Church at 2.30.

The Methodist Entertainment

Last Thursday evening the Methodist Society of this place gave an entertainment and supper at the Town Hall. There was a special train run from Bangor, quite a party of the citizens of that city availing themselves of the opportunity of having a good time. On the arrival of the train the party immediately repaired to the hall where the tables that had been so well filled with all that could be asked for to supply the wants of man. The tables were set on both sides of the hall and were handsomely decorated with flowers, which with the rich things that were spread out, looked very inviting, and so they were. After the supper the remaining portion of the evening was spent in listening to the programme that had been prepared for the evening. The entertainment was opened by a song and chorus from the quartette composed of Miss Sadie Mayo, Mrs. Ansel Allen, Mr. A A. Lervis, and Mr. Jonas Colburn. The following tableau "Blue Beard's Wives," next followed. Mrs. Ansel Allen sang a piece, "Bunch of Violets." A song "Fancy Moonlight," was next rendered by the College quartette. In response to an encore, "Crown the Song King," was given A tableau "Ancient and Modern Music," was given. Song, "Tear," by Miss Helen A. Osgood, of Bangor; and in response to an encore she sang "Beautiful Venice." "Rejected." was given. Duet and medley "Out in the cold," was next given, closing with a song entitled "Good Night," by the College quartette. The entertainment was one of the finest that ever has been given by the Society. Every one seemed highly pleased with the evening's performance. W.

FROM PISCATAQUIS.

Decision in the Abbot Road and Bridge Case.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

At the last term of the County Commissioners' Court at Dover the noted road and bridge case, at Abbot Village was tried. Parties opposed to it presented a petition for a discontinuance which was met by remonstrances from Abbot, Wellington, Maxfield and Kingsbury. Twenty of the business firms of Bangor city also signed a similar remonstrance. Hon. A. M. Robinson appeared in behalf of the B. & P. R. R., as that Company is interested in its immediate completion, for it will centralize business there which now goes to Skowhegan, and thus increase their freights The respondents opposed an order of notice on the petition upon the ground that "an inquiry would be inexpedient" as it would give the right of appeal, which would cause a serious delay in the proceedings. The trial lasted four days and some thirty or forty witnesses were examined. Hudson, Jr., and Everett appeared for the petitioners, and J. P. Sprague and Lebroke for the respondents. Very elaborate arguments were made by the counsel. Saturday the Commissioners rendered a decision in favor of the road and against entertaining the petition. It is asserted that this insures the road this season.

DIXMONT DAIRY ASSOCIATION.

Elections of Officers, and Directors Reports for 1870.

The Dixmont Mountain Dairy Association held its annual meeting at Simpson's Corner, April 7, and chose the following officers for the ensuing year: President, H. A. Arnold, Secretary, John Whitcomb, Jr.; Directors, H. A. Arnold, W. H. Toothaker, John Ray; Treasurer, C. Peabody; Salesman, C. W. Prescott; Auditor, L. P. Toothaker.

Mr. L. P. Toothaker, Chairman of the Directors for 1870, made the following report:

Whole amount of cheese manufactured, about ten tons, which sold at an average of about 11¾ cents per pound,	$3,355.46
Manufacturing stock on hand,	50.00
	$3,405.46
Whole amount of milk furnished, 211,730 pounds, valued at 8 mills,	$1,693.84
Cost of collecting milk,	295.13
Cost of manufacturing cheese,	180.50
Salt, wood, boxes, etc.,	131.72
Commission for selling,	23.00
Interest on shares and tax on building,	38.35
	$2,362.54

The cheese was manufactured by Messrs. Frank Robinson and William E. Durgin, and for excellency of quality, it is hard to compete, for it was the best in the State, and had we sold later in the season would have realized a much higher price.

The Stockholders are well satisfied with the operation for 1870, and voted to run the factory this season, beginning operations June 4, and continuing about four months.

ALLEGED ROBBERY.

A Man Arrested in Boston Charged With Robbery in Aroostook.

A Boston despatch reports the arrest of Timothy H. Green of Lowell, Mass. He was arrested in a saloon in Boston where he had dropped a roll of $980 in bills, for which he failed to give satisfactory account. His mother in Lowell said she had recently bought him a ticket to Bangor, to go to Benedicta, Aroostook County, where a widowed aunt lives who had promised to will Green the farm if he would carry it on while she lived. Green told several stories, finally saying his aunt had changed her mind and willed her property to the Bishop of Portland. The despatch says it is strongly suspected that he robbed the old lady, or possibly assaulted her or killed her. The bills have not the appearance of having been in current use. An officer will be sent to investigate the case, as the telegraph does not reach the place.

From Carmel.

At a regular meeting of St. Paul's Division, No. 177, S. of T., held at the Town Hall, Carmel, on Saturday evening, April 7, the following officers were duly installed by D. G. W. P., C. P. Rollins, assisted by D. G. C., George E. Dodge, for the ensuing quarter: P Marion Simpson, W. P.; Miss Hattie Davis, W. A.; Miss Sadie Nichols, R. S.; Miss Annie Simpson, A. R. S.; E. Friend, F. S.; O. H. Ressy, Treas.; Mrs March, Chaplain; Mrs. Lot Garot, C.; Mrs. G. N. Miller, A. C., John E. Benjamin, I. S.; Ben W. March, O. S.

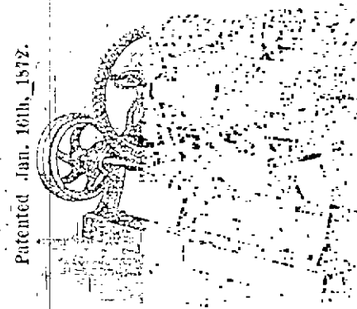
RICHARDSON'S PARALLEL GANG EDGER,



This Patent Gang Edger is now in use in many of the best mills in the country, and has been pronounced by all who have seen it to be the most perfect machine for the purpose ever invented. It is the only one in which the saws can be adjusted while in motion, and the only one in which the saws are self-feeding. The operator can stop any saw at any time without stopping the others. It is
